Why advertise in Prairie books NOW?

P*rairie books NOW (PbN)* is a print and digital magazine dedicated to promoting books from and about the Canadian Prairies. Twice yearly (during the spring and fall), PbN is sent out to book buyers, booksellers, librarians, schoolteachers, readers, the media, and more.

Prairie writers contribute to our diverse culture through novels, poetry, children's books, works of non-fiction and more, and are taking their place on the national stage.

No other publication or catalogue targets the Prairie market as effectively as PbN. With an estimated readership of about 90,000, PbN is the single best way to promote your Prairie published or authored titles, upcoming events, business, and love of Prairie books. PbN reaches the book readers and buyers that you want to reach!

Fiction, non-fiction, poetry, drama, children's books, middle-grade readers, young adult books, graphic novels and more are all featured in PbN. Turn to PbN for a fresh view of our publishing industry and our reading community.

PbN acts as a catalogue for consumers, and also for library, school and book store buyers, while creating media opportunities for publishers and authors.

Why does PbN work?

While readers turn to PbN for the latest news about Prairie books in all genres, PbN also acts as a catalogue for libraries, schools and bookstore buyers, with features on about 150 new Prairie books in each issue. We include ordering information for each title.

Based on surveys, readers indicate that PbN is a reliable source for information on Prairie titles, both in terms of editorial and advertising content. Prairie bookstores and library buyers tell us that they use PbN to order books for their stores/libraries and readers.

Who gets PbN?

PbN is distributed to over 90 communities and more than 300 venues across Canada. PbN is sent to many elementary, middle years and high schools in Western Canada. It is also sent to libraries, First Nations communities, university bookstores, major chain stores, independent booksellers, and other locations throughout Canada and the US midwest.

PbN is sent to an extensive media and subscriber list. We also insert copies of PbN in the Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba home-subscriber editions of The Globe and Mail and to select home-subscribers of the Winnipeg Free Press.

PbN is online!

We have a dedicated web site at www.prairiebooksnow.ca with articles and features from the magazine, and online exclusive content, and advertisements.
